When you have a post-office box, the postman does not bring letters to you, but you go to the post office and get your letters and parcels from your box. The box is locked, and you have the key, so the letters are quite safe.

One day, the headmaster of a school wrote to the post office and asked for a post-office box for his school. He soon got an answer. It said, "We will give you a post-box in one month." Three months later, the headmaster wrote to the post office again and said, "Why haven't we got a post- office box yet?"

This was how the post office answered: "Dear sir, We gave you a post-office box two months ago and wrote to you then to tell you. Here is the key to your box. You will find your letter to you in it."
